

The Over Day Centre Association is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), whose members have various powers under its constitution. These powers include voting on amendments to the constitution; to elect trustees; to put resolutions to General Meetings of the members; to vote on amalgamation or transfer of assets to another CIO and dissolution of the CIO.

Under charity law all CIO Members have a duty to exercise these members' powers in the way they consider in good faith is most likely to further the CIO's charitable purposes. The constitution requires that you confirm your acceptance of this duty to become a full voting member of the CIO. If you do not agree to exercise the powers vested in members, then your application cannot be accepted.

By applying for membership, you acknowledge and agree to exercise these powers, and your name will then be entered into the Register of Members.

The Over Day Centre Association will process your personal data in accordance with our Data Protection Policy together with the Data Privacy Notice: Members. A copy of the Privacy Notice will be provided on acceptance.

You do not need to become a member to search, browse or view content on the public area of our website. However, you will need to become a Member to receive members only information.

The information that you provide in your Member application must be true, accurate and current. On becoming a Member, you will be required to update the Centre of any changes to these details, without delay.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Application to become a Member of the Charity

Please treat this as my application to the Trustees to become a Member of the Charity. I have set out my full name and address below.

I am interested in furthering the purposes of the Charity. I accept the duty of each Member set out in the Constitution of the Charity, namely the duty to exercise my powers as a Member of the Charity in the way I decide in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the Charity.

I acknowledge that if my application is approved and accepted, my membership will be subject to the provisions of the Constitution of the Charity.

If my application is approved and accepted, please let me have a [membership certificate] OR [letter of approval and acceptance]

Yours faithfully,

Signed
